FIRE DEPARTMENT OF NILES ENJOYS TURKEY BANQUET

Supervisor Richmond And
F. V. Jones Are The Speakers

SUPERVISOR RALPH
Richmond and F. V.
Jones, Niles rector, were the main speakers last Friday night at a turkey banquet held by the Niles Fire department in the clubrooms on Main street.

With more than twenty members of the volunteer organization present, and the dinner one of the finest ever served, the event will go down in the annals of the fire department as one of the most enjoyable to date.

Supervisor Richmond, just back from a trip that took him to Canada, New York, Washington, St.
Louis, New Orleans and Los Angeles, gave a graphic description of the many sights en route and told briefly of the two great national dairy and stock shows, one at St. Louis and the other at Toronto.

Jones, always an entertaining talker, held his topic to the welfare and betterment of the fire department, impressing on his audience the importance of such an organization and of the good it can do for a community.

Each member of the fire-fighting brigade was called on for a few remarks and all the while a corps of competent waiters served the delicious turkey and side dishes.

E. E. Dias, local contractor, made an admirable master of ceremonies. Among the specialties he introduced during the evening was an accordion solo by Renaldo Cozzi and a humorous monologue by W. J. Walton. A wealth of repartee rippled up one side of the long tables and down the other, W. J. Helm of the Niles theater being the head
"gag" man for the evening.

Among those present were A. L.
Salvadorini, Ray Davis, J. L.
Peterson, W. J. Helm, H. B. Rathburn, W. F. Farrell, L. Smith, J.
Alberg, A. Alves, E. F. Glassbrook,
T. Elliot, E. Olivera, C. Crane,
F. E. Jones, Ralph Richmond, E.
E. Dias, Fred Nelson, W. J. Walton, H. Deluri, R. Cozzi and W.
Hudson.

GRAND PRESIDENT OF DAUGHTERS IS GIVEN RECEPTION

Laura Loma parlor, Native
Daughters of the Golden West, tendered a royal welcome to Esther Sullivan, worthy grand president, in Odd Fellows hall, Niles,
on Tuesday night.

More than twenty-five guests were present to swell the welcoming crowd, and a fine program and supper made the affair one long to be remembered.

Two other officers, Sally Thaler, grand secretary, and Gertrude Morrison, supervising district deputy, were included in the big welcome. Mrs. Emma Murray, librarian of Niles, was initiated into the order.

Miss Mary Bliss, of San Francisco, visited with her parents
over the last week-end.

SUPERVISOR RICHMOND ENDS FEARS OF NILES AND SUNOL MERCHANTS

MEETING AT TUNNEL PORTAL RESULTS IN AGREEMENT BETWEEN COUNTY AND WESTERN PACIFIC TO RUSH WORK.

NILES CANYON will again be open to automobile traffic by December 14.

That is the promise of the Western Pacific company and Supervisor
Ralph Richmond.

At an "on the job" meeting held at the mouth of the recently burned-out tunnel of the Western Pacific in Niles canyon on Monday, representatives of the railroad, the county and the Niles and Sunol chambers of commerce discussed the road problem and,
after a thorough survey of the situation, decided the county highway could be re-placed within three weeks.

Called into conference by Supervisor Richmond, the delegates were given first-hand data on the project by Howard Smitten and C. P. Gilmore, civil engineer for the Western Pacific company, and by George Posey, county surveyor.

Trains were put back on schedule through the tunnel on Sunday and the major portion of the work remaining to be done by the railroad company is the construction of a 78-foot portal over which the re-built county highway will run.

According to Gilmore, who will have personal supervision of the portal construction, it will take approximately twenty-one days to complete the job. The work of laying a temporary roadway over the top of the concrete portal
will consume four or five days, according to Posey. Therefore,
automobile traffic should be resumed on or about Saturday, December 14.

Representatives of the Niles chamber of commerce present at the open-air conference were President Harvey Braun, F. V.
Jones and J. E. Townsend. The Sunol chamber sent G.
E. Korabach, C. C. Carr and R.
D. Baker to the meeting.

DISTRICT MOURNS UNTIMELY DEATH OF J. A. CRAWFORD

Veteran Employee of Wood Products Company
Suffers Stroke

Funeral services were held yesterday for J. A. Crawford of San Leandro, veteran employee of the International Wood Products company of Niles, who died suddenly on Monday morning at the age of 62.

Last rites were held for the deceased in Oakland under the auspices of the Benevolent Order of Elks.

Beside the widow, Nellie, Crawford is survived by a daughter, Mrs. William Barrackman, and a son, J. D. Crawford, both of San Leandro.

Crawford lived in the Broadmoor tract at San Leandro and had been employed by the products company for nearly six years. He was a member of the Niles chamber of commerce and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances here.

Although in failing health for some time, his death was wholly unexpected and came as a great shock to relatives and friends.
He seldom missed a meeting of the Niles chamber of commerce, and his absence at future sessions will be a topic for a long time to come.

Crawford was a man of the highest integrity, according to his friends and business associates.
He was charitable and kindly to everyone and was ever willing to donate toward worthy causes. His passing is considered a distinct loss to the community.

BIG DAIRY SHOWS ARE EDUCATIONAL RICHMOND STATES

Supervisor Meets Senators
Johnson-Shortridge
In Washington

He saw a lot of country and he had a good time, but he's glad to be back with friends and acquaintances in Niles and other communities throughout his district.

That's what Supervisor Ralph Richmond told a representative of the Register this week, soon after the official had stepped from a train that had brought him and Mrs. Richmond up from Los Angeles.

Supervisor Richmond went east
as the Alameda county representative to the National Dairy show at St. Louis and the great country-wide show at Toronto, Canada. He reports both these gi-gantic exhibitions as being more than the press agents claimed for them. Thousands of visitors were in attendance each day at both shows, he states, and much of great value was offered the dairymen of the two countries.

With his official business completed, Richmond and his wife
set out on a sight-seeing tour
which took them to Montreal,
New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, Annapolis, New Orleans and Los Angeles.

In Washington, Supervisor
Richmond visited with Senators Johnson and Shortridge, and at Annapolis he had the pleasure of meeting Allen Shinn, a Niles boy who is taking the military course.

GRID GAME TODAY

Football is not over yet at Washington Union high school.
Today the seniors are playing a picked team from the other three classes. The reward for the winners is a banquet.

The seniors probably will win,
as the major portion of the regular football squad comes from the upper class.

FAMOUS BIRD SETS ALL-GIRL RECORD HERE

ANOTHER RECORD for Old Man Stork, Esq., has been chalked up at the Silva maternity home of Niles where the bird has busied himself
lately delivering five baby girls in a row.

Five-count 'em-five gurgling girls, and not a single bouncing boy to relieve the monotony.

Those in the receiving line for Mr. Stork's recent series of visits include Mrs. Edward King, of Centerville; Mrs. A.
Sanchez, of San Francisco;
Mrs. M. Silva, of Newark; Mrs.
M. Payma, of Warm Springs;
and Mrs. F. Muns, of Centerville.

BASEBALL SEASON STARTS EARLY AT WASHINGTON HIGH

Again baseball and track sports
will make their entrance to Washington Union high school. As soon as football season is finished the boys will start training for baseball and track.

It is expected that Washington will have an exceptionally good baseball team, according to Coach Regli.

Led by Rueben Ferry, the 1929
captain, the team should be a success. Ferry has had three years experience at short stop on the Washington team.

Clarence Pine has had two years experience at short stop on the school team.

Fontes, Cahill, Lebon, Caldiera, and Kitashima have each had a year of playing on the team.

Each year a star is generally found in the freshman class to help out the team.

NILES SCOUTS TO BOOST CLUB FUND AT BENEFIT SHOW

Go to the Niles theater tonight, see a good show and help the local troop of Boy Scouts make some money with which to furnish their new clubhouse.

Niles troop is holding a benefit performance at the theater. That is, a percentage of the admissions go to the Scouts. So, the larger the crowd, the more money the boys make.

As an added attraction, five fine, fat turkeys will be given away. It won't be long until Thanksgiving, therefore a big turkey would be welcome in most any home.

So go to the show at Niles tonight. The feature picture is a thriller called "The Ghost Talks."

Geo. A. McArthur Spends Day Delving Into Files

Geo. A. McArthur, of San Leandro, and former publisher of the Township Register spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Parks.

Mr. McArthur is now conducting a commercial printing concern in the "Cherry City."

Back in the '70's and early
'80's Mr. McArthur and Mr.
Parks' father were close friends.
They worked together on the old Deadwood, S. D., Pioneer when that city was in its heyday of glory. Later, and before Mr. Mc-Arthur went into business for himself in Wyoming, he was employed by Judge N. H. Parks in Nebraska. The files of this old paper are still in the possession of the publisher of the Register, and Mr. McArthur enjoyed a day delving into them, bringing back a little closer the memory of other and happy days.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC MAY PUT STOP TO NIGHT WHISTLING

Register Takes Matter Up With Officials Of Company

If residents of Niles think they've lost their hearing some night because they can't hear the screech and who-ee of the Southern Pacific locomotives, they mustn't get excited and call for an ear specialist. The fact of the case will be that they won't hear the ding-blasted whistles because there won't be any.

Disliking the annoying blasts during the hours when all self-respecting people should be asleep, the Register took the matter up this week with Lee F.
Hudson, district passenger agent, and C. F. Corrigan, traveling passenger agent, and the two Southern Pacific officials promised they would do what they could to have the nuisance abated.

In fact, the Register has been trying to put a muffler on the engine blasts for a long time, but certain people connected with the railroad insist the whistling is necessary.

"Why?" the Register asked.

"Well, it's like this," replied the S. P. people. "When an engineer of a fireman leaves the train to get a cup of coffee, or a new plug of tobacco or whatever he might need at the time, whoever stays in the engine has to toot the whistle a certain number of blasts to let the absent one know it's time to be pulling out."

"Hm, that's it, eh," quoth the Register.

"Yep, and beside," continued the railroaders, "the whistles have to be tested every so often to see if their tonsils are O. K. Y'see, engine whistles are very delicate and have to be handled like babies."

"Well," the Register ups and says, "if those that scream and howl around Niles are delicate,
we'd sure hate to hear some that are strong and hearty."

Anyway, Messrs. Hudson and Corrigan are going to see if the company can't find some other system for calling absent employees, and, as far as the testing of the whistles is concerned, that probably will be done out in the wide-open spaces where there aren't any hard-working people who need a good night's sleep.

Local Dairyman Buys Stock in Big Concern

An important business transfer is announced this week by Ernest Nagli, formerly a driver for the Innes-Cloverdale dairy of Niles.
According to Nagli, who eight months ago went into business for himself under the firm name of "Ernest Nagli's Home Dairy," he has just recently purchased stock in the American Creamery Company and he is now distributing that creamery's milk and cream.

Nagli wishes to advise his many friends and customers that while he changed the name, he is still in business for himself and that a continuance of their patronage will be greatly appreciated.

Nagli is well-known in Washington township, his marriage last January to Miss Frances Silva of the Silva Maternity home being one of the social events of the year.

Niles Troop, Boy Scouts of America is preparing to attend a Court of Honor at Centerville soon at which ten of the local Scouts will receive awards.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

THE GOVERNORSHIP

RAY R. RILEY, whose home is in San Bernardino, and activities are in Sacramento as state controller, has broken a gentlemen's agreement,
and announced his candidacy for the governorship of California. The pledge that he is alleged to have held lightly was made between a number of politicians who hoped eventually to fill the place occupied by Young. They are reputed to have met some months ago and agreed to make a silent campaign for the nomination, and at an opportune time, whoever seemed to have developed the greatest strength, would be given a clear field against the incumbent.

Riley seized time by the forelock, and treating the pledge as but a scrap of paper, tore it to pieces and announced that he was just about the man to "redeem" the state from high taxes and burdensome bureaus, which he says are insidiously eating away the financial structure of the state.

While Riley's political fire-brand may not have enthused the voter to any noticeable extent, it at least brought to a focus the impending struggle between the present governor and some independent candidate who will in 1930 contest
his leadership in this state.

Among the possible entrants in the govern-ship derby are District Attorney Fitts, of Los Angeles; Mayor Porter, also of Los Angeles;
Former-Governor Richardson, of Berkeley; Nelson
P. Edwards, of Santa Anna; Rex Goodcell, formerly with the income tax department, and Mayor Rolph, of San Francisco.

While Governor Young has not formally announced his candidacy for reelection, it is a foregone conclusion that he will seek an endorsement of his administration. Those who knew the governor four years ago and know him today, would advise that he give greater concern to his health and less concern to the honor that a renewed tenure on the governorship would win for him.
Young's friends have been startled and pained at his care-worn appearance, the responsibilities of his great office weighing heavily upon his shoulders. He has aged preceptibly.

Even though a contest for re-election might prove fatal to Young, and he was convinced of the fact, he would close his eyes to the truth and go on. Only one man in history refused the crown—the Roman, Julius Caesar; and no one in contemporary history has emulated his modest, and possibly wise, example. So Young will make a strenuous campaign to retain the illusion of great honor and power that is supposed to be a part of
of that high office.

So far, we are not enthused, nor can the people as a whole be, over the array of candidates that will dispute Young's leadership. Among them there is not a single man who can, or intends, if elected to redeem the state from alleged corporation rule. There is not a man of such outstanding ability that a platform embracing tax reduction, would mean anything at all except a platform of locomotion to run upon; there is none whose reputation would be boni fide proof that a sincere effort would be made to lift the state bureaus and commissions out of the zone of the sinister influence of public service corporations, under which spell they seem to have been rendered indifferent to public opinion, granting authority right and left to raise rates, to deny a competing company the right to enter a field poorly served by a monopoly,
and, consequently, making our supposedly democratic government in California a mockery.

Where is there a page from the political record of any one of the reputed candidates that would indicate that he would, if elected, clean out the notorious parol board, drive the corporation attorneys from the elbows of the corporation commission, and turn the tax-eating hogs (bureaus, commissions, inspectors and meddlesome board members) out into the cold world to win an honest living or starve?

Where is that page? Yes, where?
Certainly you will not find it in the record
of Friend Richardson, Harry Chandler's man
"Friday." Under his administration gigantic

Newark Ranch Hand Has Narrow Escape In Fall

Manuel Escoba, Newark ranch hand, is nursing a few painful bruises because he forgot the winds are fickle and change without notice.

Escobar was knocked from the top of a windmill last Sunday by the tail of the machine when a gust of wind smacked it against him as he was oiling up the gears. Fortunately, he was sent nose-diving toward a high shed, which shortened his fall, and he escaped with a few painful bruises.

Mrs. Anthony Maderos is reported very sick but her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Margaret Kagey and Mrs. Frank Jones spent Tuesday shopping in San Jose.

Miss Laurena Wyatt of San Francisco spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyatt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Spurr and family of Petaluma spent the week-end here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Slevin.

Raymond Womack of San Francisco was a visitor in Newark on Sunday.

Alfred Nevis spent the week-end in Livingston.

Miss Phylliss Burdick of Oakland was a visitor in Newark on Sunday.

Advertised Merchandise Is Assurance of Quality

Human beings are made up of a bundle of wants, needs, likes, dislikes, love, hate, courage, fear and other emotions. Over and through these emotions runs a certain confidence, confidence which has no measurable equal. It is this indwelling essence of reliance that has materially aided the growth and use of advertising, since the purpose of advertising is to multiply this confidence to such a point that a person is ready to invest his money in the purchase of the article or service.

Confidence in an article is established by the degree in which it meets the purchaser's wants or needs—and advertising makes known the fact that it satisfactorily serves the public in the way claimed by the advertiser. Consequently, it behooves the advertiser to maintain specific standards of quality or service, if he is to continue to enjoy the confidence of the buying public.

Likewise, advertising stamps the manufacturer or seller as one who is proud of his merchandise.

because he has confidence in its ability to fill fully and satisfactorily the wants of those who purchase. THEREFORE, REMEMBER THAT ADVERTISED GOODS ARE YOUR ASSURANCE OF VALUE FOR THE DOLLAR YOU SPEND.

In this day of distractions advertising plays the part of Co-adjutor, bringing to you, while you sit or move, facts relating to merchandise which is offered for sale, thereby enabling you to make a selection promptly, economically, easily, with little or no effort on your part.

Turn the pages of this newspaper—read one or a dozen of the advertisements, and you will find several points in connection with the article advertised which you did not know. Is this not a time-saving service for you? Does it not materially aid in reaching a decision? Does it not aid in simplifying the problems of "What shall I buy?" and "Where shall I buy it?"

HIGH ALUMNI TO TACKLE REGULARS ON THANKSGIVING

Fierce Gridiron Struggle To Be Played Before Dinner Time

Football games may come, go, turn around and flop over, but the annual clash between the Alumni of Washington Union high school and the current season's regulars will always be the "big game" for Washington township. This year the mighty gridiron struggle will take place on Thanksgiving morning at ten o'clock on the high school field. The game is scheduled before noon as a safeguard for the players. No man can play good football with his Thanksgiving dinner under his belt.

Still peeved over last year's 13-7 defeat at the hands of the regular squad, the Alumni is out for revenge this year, and what a game it should be. When Coach Joe Blacow sent out his call for alumni players last week, he was skeptical concerning the response, but when he reached the field and found twenty-four enthusiastic gentlemen prancing around eager to start practice, the slim red-headed Joe was simply bowled over with glee.

Out of his two dozen candidates, Blacow expects to mould a football machine that will roll right over the regulars. He intends to get that lost touch-down of last year back and one or two more on top of it.

Of course, Captain Jack Cahill of this year's regular squad at Washington isn't being scared to death by Coach Blacow's optimism. Cahill has a nifty bunch of pigskinners to direct this year and he believes his boys can out-smart the "old-timers."

Among the men who have responded to the alumni call are Early Hygland, Bud Ruschin, Joe Perry, Ray Joliff, Albert Leonardo, Kern Ferry, Fritz Swanson, Spud Lewis, James Cull, Pat Fields, Joe Fontz, Ritz Silva, Mong Silva, Bill Hirsch, Ernie Pimentel, Al Silveria, Tony Duarte and Walter Norris.

The high school regulars are Ernest Garcia, Clarence Pine, Clarence Soito, Eugene Dusterberry, Ed Bernard, Frank Matton, H. Overacker, M. Brown, M. Teeter, R. Ferry and Jack Cahill. Coach Jess Regli will aid the regulars in their practice for the "big game."

SLEEPY GUESTS

—the cause is poor lighting

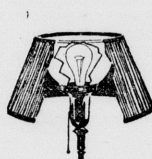

Carefully you plan a social evening. You wink at expenses. Guests arrive in a cheerful mood. But poor lighting tires their eyes, makes them sleepy early. And dulls the whole party.

Why let poor lighting spoil any evening when good lighting in the living room costs but 1½¢ an hour!

For this trivial sum you can have the best in lighting. In it lies enchantment—draperies and furniture have added charm, social evenings are more enjoyable, one's complexion seems smoother and more beautiful.

Would you like to know more about proper home lighting? The P G and E's local office has lighting specialists to advise you. Or if you like, we'll send to you without cost or obligation, our 32 page booklet containing 27 full pages, 8 by 11 inches, of handsome pictures portraying the romance of home lighting from early Babylonian times until today.

Sunol C. of C. Keeps After Night Service

Following up its action to procure night telephone service, the Sunol Chamber of Commerce sent its committee to Hayward Tuesday to confer with the head of the southern Alameda County division of the telephone company. This committee was composed of G. E. Rorabach, C. C. Carr and R. D. Baker.

They reported that there was a possibility of favorable action by the telephone company within a short time.

The Chamber of Commerce points out that the subscribers here pay the same rate as those in communities having 24-hour service instead of the 12-hours given them.

BOY SCOUTS HIKE UP MT. TAMALPAIS AND SLIDE DOWN

The bear may have gone over the mountain but when eight Boy Scouts from Niles troop reached the top of Mount Tamalpais last Sunday they decided they had hiked far enough. After a two-hour rest, the adventurers slid down the historic peak into Muir Woods.

The Sunday hike was supervised by Marshall Green, scoutmaster. Leaving at 5 o'clock in the morning in automobiles the Scouts arrived at Mill Valley shortly after 7. They deserted the cars at the base of the mountain, took deep breaths and started up the trail. Needless to say, they had a lot of fun before they reached the top.

The trip was one of education as well as pleasure for the young hikers, as particular attention was paid to nature study, especially in Muir Woods.

Wild Animals For Thanksgiving Play Brought To Town

Hilarious Comedy Drama To Be Presented At Pleasanton

Animals which will be used in "Mrs. Tubbs of Shanty Town," the Thanksgiving play to be given by the Presbyterian Sunday School, at Amador high school in Pleasanton on Tuesday night November 26, have arrived in Pleasanton. It was announced this week by Mrs. J. E. Siggins, director.

These animals include two lions, a tiger, a boa constrictor, and an educated mule. They will be kept under cover until the night of the play, but persons passing during rehearsals have reported being frightened by their roars, hisses and brays.

Included in the cast are several of the best known amateurs in Pleasanton. In addition to having a play which is a scream from start to finish the roles have been well assigned and an enjoyable evening is in store for all who attend the performance.

GHOSTS, THRILLS, LAUGHS, SCREAMS ON NILES SCREEN

Do you like to be thrilled? If so, take in the Niles theater tonight. They have a picture there that will tingle your nerves like they have never tingled before.

This thriller is "The Ghost Talks," an all-dialogue movie that is the last word in fun and excitement. It is a farce-comedy that involves crooks, amateur detectives and ghosts.

On Saturday, the Niles theater will feature Rin Tin Tin in "The Million Dollar Collar," a Warner Bros. production. In this picture, the famous dog breaks up a notorious criminal ring, solves a million dollar jewel mystery and saves his master from a gang of inhuman outlaws.

The Sunday-Monday feature at the Niles is that great musical show, "Fox Movietone Follies." What a show this is! What singing! What dancing! What comedy! Among the stars are Sue Carol, Lola Lane, Sharon Lynn, John Breeden, Dixie Lee and Stepin Fetchit. Two hundred people in all make up the show. It is de luxe entertainment for eye and ear. All the mighty resources of the great Fox organization were brought into play to create this gorgeous extravaganza. Don't miss it.

Pictures coming soon to the Niles theater are "The Show Boat" and "Broadway."

GEORGE BANCROFT IN HEAVY DRAMA AT FOX OAKLAND

George Bancroft in his greatest picture, "The Mighty," an all-talking Paramount production, will open Friday at the Fox Oakland theater, Oakland.

The he-man drama of "Underworld" and "The Wolf of Wall Street" is intensified and broadened in "The Mighty," a story of a man's regeneration.

The original story was written by Robert N. Lee, author of the screen play, "Underworld." In the array of supporting names are such favorites as Esther Ralston, society sweetheart of the killer; Warner Oland, star of "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Mauch"; Raymond Hatton, famous as a comedian; Dorothy Revier, lovely underworld charmer, and O. P. Heggie, who figured importantly in "The Letter."

Fanchon and Marco's atmospheric "Far East Idea" on the stage will be made up of three oriental sequences, bizarre in conception and representation. Cowan and Gray will be the headliners and Hermie King will offer his version of "Far East" jazz.

Corona—Daley's Inc. opened new and complete market at 205 East Sixth Street in Corona Theatre building.

GET ACQUAINTED DAY BRUISES UP FELLOWS AT HIGH

And what a sore bunch of fellows there was around Washington Union high school late last Friday afternoon.

The male students held their first "Get Acquainted" day, and they nearly made a seminary out of the school. If any fellow got out of the program with less than ten bruises, he was lucky.

A "sack", tug-of-war, greased-pole contest and horse-back riding contest made up the major events. The first and last mentioned were genuine rough and tumble affairs. In fact they were a case of the survival of the fittest, strength and nerve counting as winning factors.

The freshmen won the sack contest, the juniors took the horse-back jousting, and the sophomores won the tug-of-war. The greased pole resisted the efforts of all, a too generous painting of soap proving the stumbling block.

Officials for the day were Bob Wright, Laverne Silva, Howard Overacker and Eugene Dusterberry.

NOTED SINGER IS HONOR GUEST OF LUNCHEON GROUP

Robert Lloyd, noted singer and authority on voice culture, was the guest of honor at the regular luncheon meeting of the local chamber of commerce today at the Gregory hotel, where he addressed members of the club and visitors on the correct use of the voice.

Success as a singer first brought Lloyd to the attention of the public. During the World War he entered the Officers Training Camp at the request of the government and turned his knowledge of voice management to instructing officers in giving commands. Since then he has continued his study of the voice and its culture, devoting his time to aiding those with defective speech and imperfect enunciation.

His knowledge of practical means to better vocal expression plus an aptitude for conveying his message, have brought Lloyd into wide demand among luncheon and other clubs.

HARD TIME CARD PARTY ARRANGED BY MEN'S CLUB

There's going to be hard times in Centerville—at least for one night—for the St. James Men's Club has arranged an old-fashioned, hard-time turkey whist party for tomorrow evening at Memorial hall.

B. M. Wismer, who heads the entertainment committee, asserts this party is going to eclipse all other social events held by a club to date this year.

To make the party a complete success, patrons are urged to attend in their oldest clothes. There will be a prize, Wismer states, for the "worst" costume.

Beside a number of fine, fat turkeys as prizes, there will be a "stack" of other good things, Wismer states, for the players to vie for. Hot coffee, sandwiches, cakes and what-not will be served in cafeteria style.

STUDENTS TO END BOOK WEEK WITH SPECIAL PROGRAM

Students of Washington Union High school are celebrating National Book Week and tomorrow they will culminate the period with a wide variety of contests.

There will be a grand costume parade and prizes will be awarded for the best costume. Among the more important contests will be a book-title guessing and a poster contest.

Book week has been supported by programs in the individual English classes. Discussions of the lives and works of the best-known authors have been held daily.

LIVERMORE HIGH DEFEATS LOCALS IN SPEEDY GAME

Washington Union high school closed its football season with out-of-town teams last Thursday with a game against Livermore high, losing the contest by a score of 6 to 0.

Too much speed on the part of the Livermore backfield spelled defeat for Washington. Time and again the visiting ball carriers would get away to long runs, but the soft dirt field tired them and the Washington boys, used to the grid, would manage to catch them before they crossed the goal line.

Due to their fleetness and a strong line, Livermore had little trouble in keeping Washington out of dangerous territory.

SPEEDERS FINED

Stepping on the gas a bit too hard brought fines of $10 each to Edgar Walter, 1940 Broadway, San Francisco, and M. R. Silver of Tracy, when they appeared in court Tuesday on charges of speeding.

NEWARK MAN WANTED

Warrant was issued here on Tuesday for the arrest of Louis Goldberg, 70, wanted on statutory charges, and bail was set at $5000. Complaint was filed by Mrs. J. Faria of Newark, where Goldberg was formerly a resident. He is now believed to be in San Francisco.

Local Ducks In Plot To Upset Athletic Club's Dinner Plans

Somewhere a number of ducks are enjoying life and liberty and a hearty laugh perhaps over eluding the fate which would have reduced them to a delectable dinner for members of the Centerville Athletic club tonight.

That dinner is delayed. It was scheduled to honor players on the Rogers volley ball team who recently defeated the rival Madrugas squad in a three-set match lasting a month. Visitors and vanquished planned to bury the hatchet, as well as sink a few knives and forks in the big duck dinner. The defeated Madrugas were delegated to pluck the necessary fowl by way of forfeit.

Several reputed "crack shots" of the club agreed to bring down the birds. The defeated team was ready to start the feathers flying.

But no one thought to consult the ducks on the matter. Possibly they feel neglected. Perhaps they are not so fond of duck dinner as are the Athletic club members. Anyway, the absence of ducks in this vicinity has been noticeable lately and a bit disconcerting to the club's crack gunmen.

No duck, no dinner. The event is postponed indefinitely.

CENTERVILLE TO GET PAVEMENT ON ITS MAIN STREET

The campaign of the Centerville chamber of commerce for the paving of Main street from the edge of the highway to the curbs throughout the business district is bearing fruit.

An Oakland construction company has started laying concrete curbs along the street and the paving is expected to start within a few weeks, according to Frank Dusterberry, president of the chamber of commerce.

A paving district has been formed under provisions of the new county charter and the expense of the improvement will be shared by the abutting property owners. The paving will eliminate the dust and mud nuisance in the business district.

LEGION AUXILIARY HOLD JOINT MEETING TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Officers of the Pleasanton American Legion and Auxiliary were conducted into office at a joint installation recently in the Legion hall. The legion officers were intalled by Fred F. Bebergall, past state adjutant, and the auxiliary officials by Mrs. Agnes Dutcher, past state vice president.

The officers of the legion were: Conrad Westling, commander; Hugo Radbruch, first vice commander; Newton Arendt, second vice commander; Walter Nilson, adjutant; G. Spenser Barry, treasurer; Arthur Hansen, Chaplin; and Henry Lanini, sergeant-at-arms.

Auxiliary officers: Hazel Hansen, president; Helen Radbruch, first vice president; Gladys Bruce, second vice president; Elizabeth Apperson, treasurer; Laura Bruce, Apperson, treasurer; Laura Bruce, Chaplin; and Irene Arfsten, secretary.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR TO INITIATE

Friday the thirteenth appears to hold no terrors for the Pleasanton Order of Eastern Star, for they will install officers for the new fiscal year, Friday, December 13.

Those who will be installed will be Norma Kohn, worthy matron; H. G. Kohn, worthy patron; Elizabeth Hall, associate matron; William Hall, associate patron; Ann Elliott, conductress; Mayo Glassey, associate conductress; Edith Ziegenfuss, recording secretary; and Myrtle Madsen, treasurer.

ORIENT CHAPTER OF EASTERN STAR ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. Ruth Helwig and her husband, Earl, today are Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, respectively, of Orient chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Mr. and Mrs. Helwig were elected to the honor offices at the annual election ceremonies last Wednesday night.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year are: Sadie Hodges, associate matron; E. B. Hodges, associate patron; Fern Mitte, secretary; Dora Richmond, treasurer; Tillie Gould, conductress, and Jeanette Richmond, associate conductress.

The annual election meeting was well attended and resulted in much work for the "good of the order" being done. On December 11 a large class of candidates will be initiated, according to Mrs. Mitte, secretary.

STUDENTS' DANCE ON THANKSGIVING TO BE COLORFUL

Thanksgiving is to be celebrated by the students of Washington Union High school in a three-fold fashion this year. There will be a two-day holiday to begin with, advisory programs and a big ball on Thanksgiving night.

The advisory period programs will be presented in the various rooms at a sixth period next Tuesday. There will be a variety of good material from which the classes may take selections for their programs.

The ball will be held at the Garden of Allah. It will be a program dance. The bids will be given each member of the student body, while the alumni are to be admitted without bids. Frank Lewis and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Mount Shasta — City Council called for bids for repairs on city hall building.

CLUB CARD PARTY IS BIG SUCCESS; CAKES SELL WELL

Another successful card party has gone down in the annals of the Washington Country club, Centerville.

Last Friday afternoon twenty-two tables of players vied for an attractive array of prizes, and after the games delicious refreshments were served.

As an added attraction, the club women held a home-baked cake sale, realizing more than $30 from the same. Cakes of all sizes and recipes were on hand to tempt the buyers.

Among those who won prizes at cards were Mrs. Martin, of Niles; Mrs. Ralph Emerson, Mrs. L. Tyson, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Fred Dusterberry, Mrs. Frank Dusterberry and Mrs. W. Walton.

Vallejo—Fox West Coast Corporation took over Virginia Theatre.

Personal Items

The United Artisans met at the home of George Mathieson this week, combining a business and social meeting. Cards followed the serious part of the session. Plans were laid for a turkey dinner to be held December 18.

J. C. McGee, former proprietor of the Washington Township Cleaners here, has returned from an extended motor trip and is now with Dohner and Galbraith in Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. McGee drove to South Dakota, visiting Texas en route and covering some 8000 miles.

Miss Bernice Hight and L. L. Jarrel, of Oakland, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Waterbury.

JUNIOR TRAFFIC PATROL PLANNED FOR THIS AREA

With the plan such a success in other sections of the state, an effort is being made to establish junior traffic patrols at certain schools in southern Alameda county.

According to Captain Lewis Elke of the California highway patrol, the system has been proven a success in San Mateo county and in other bay district areas. Schools facing the highway are especially unsafe for the children. It was pointed out, and such a condition exists at Irvington, Alviso, Alvarado and Mt. Eden.

The plan calls for certain older boys to serve as "traffic cops" during the hour in the morning when the majority of the children are going to school, and in the afternoon when they are leaving.

THREE OF FOUR ESSAY AWARDS GO TO AMADOR

Jov Madsen, Leeta Haas,
Audrey Blacow Declared
Winners

Three of the four prizes for the best California history essays allotted to other than bay cities by the Native Sons of Alameda county, were won by students of Amador Valley Joint Union High School.

Joy Madsen, Leeta Haas and Audrey Blacow were the pupils of Amador whose essays were adjudged best, according to the awards made last Friday at Oakland High School. In all thirty-seven prizes were awarded.

Miss Madsen wrote on the subject, "Joaquin Murietta," Miss Haas, on "The Donner Party," and Miss Blacow on "Lost, A Name."

Miss Madsen's essay dealt with the history of the famous bandit who raided many estates in the Pleasanton section, and whose hide-out was not far from there. Many interesting local facts found their way into her theme.

Miss Haas' theme dealt with the trials of the famous Donner party in its attempt to get over the Sierra Nevada mountain divide, and failed, and its hardships in spending the winter about halfway up the divide at what is now Donner Lake.

"Lost, A Name," by Miss Blacow, related to the Russian settlements of California, the rise and fall of their enterprises and other interesting data concerning the Russian influence in the Golden West.

These essays and those selected by the English department of Santa Clara University will be read at a special assembly at Amador high early in December. The writers of the essays chosen by Santa Clara University will be given special awards by the Pleasanton Native Sons. It is said that the same winners were not chosen by county and university.

CLEAR VISION ESSENTIAL TO SAFE DRIVING

By "SERVICE GUS"
Western Auto Supply Co.
Obscuring of the windshield by drops of rain makes driving dangerous and gives the man behind the wheel a feeling of anxiety and almost helplessness. Accidents due to blurred vision can be avoided if the automatic windshield cleaner is checked over at the beginning of the season and the necessary repairs and adjustments are made.

The cleaner should be thoroughly oiled or packed in grease, according to the type of cleaner. Perfect operation of the windshield wiper cannot be expected without proper lubrication of the working parts.

Replacement of the windshield wiper blade is usually necessary at the end of the summer, as the hot sun deteriorates the thin rubber blades and they soon break when put into use. The connecting air line should be inspected for leaks and cracked or checked tubing should be replaced.

The problem of keeping both halves of the windshield glass clean without the expense of installing a double type cleaner, can be solved by adding a tandem device to the present automatic cleaner. With this attachment, the windshield wiper sweeps complete half circles and cleans the entire glass at one operation. It is applicable to all single types of automatic cleaners.

With proper care, the automatic windshield wiper should give good service for the life of the car.

FOX MIRTHQUAKE NEW ATTRACTION AT OAKLAND T-D

Flagg and Quirt, fresh from "What Price Glory?" will arrive at the T & D theatre, Oakland, Friday, in "The Cock-Eyed World," a William Fox record-breaking mirthquake.

No-one has forgotten Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen in "What Price Glory?" No-one will forget them in "The Cock-Eyed World," their first all-talking comedy.

It's raw and it's racy—it's rough and it's shocking—but you're going to like it. You saw Flagg and Quirt fight and love on the silent screen. Now you'll hear them talk—and how they talk! Once again they lead the big parade of girl-chasing—and once again they tumble for the same woman. You'll see them love in every clime, country, longitude and with no end of latitude.

Lily Damita, blonde and fiery charmer, supplies enough of "It" to keep them both on the run, and El Bendel is howlingly funny in a Swedish role.

Make a date now to see "The Cock-Eyed World." It's one of the biggest attendance record smashers ever made.

CHICK HATCHERY

Livermore Valley Hatchery
Increases Capacity
To 10,000

Installation of a new Buckeye
 Mammoth All-Electric incubator
 at the Livermore Valley Hatchery has increased the hatching capacity of the company to 10,000 chicks each three weeks. This was the announcement made this week by Hiram B. Rapelje, owner of the huge poultry plant.
 The new incubator alone has a capacity of 3,750 eggs. Chicks are hatched eleven months of the year at the Livermore Valley Hatchery, December being the one month in which regular hatchings are not scheduled.
 Owing to the wonderful showing of Mr. Rapelje's hens in the Santa Cruz egg laying contests, he has been unable to fill all orders for chicks hatched from his special bred high production White Leghorns. In order to meet this increased demand he has installed the additional incubator and otherwise enlarged the capacity of his plant for handling chicks.
 The top hen of the Livermore Valley Hatchery in the egg laying contest produced 288 eggs in 360 days, just losing first place by eight eggs. The winning hen produced 296 eggs in the same period. Pen production, however from this hatchery was a winner, having an average of 208 eggs for the 360-day period. Six hundred hens were in competition.
 Visitors have been invited to inspect the Livermore Valley Hatchery, which is said to be one of the most up-to-date poultry plants in that district.

PERSONAL ITEMS
 Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis and Mrs. Sinclair, all of Niles, motored to Sonora Saturday, stopping at Stockton for a brief visit with relatives.

C. D. Farmer who was street commissioner in Eugene, Oregon, for 17 years, recently joined his wife in Newark where she is staying with their daughter, Mrs.
 Amy Hudson, real estate sales-woman, and where the Farmers will also establish a home.

Lookin' Around
 BY THE
CURIOUS PASTOR
 Hey! Hey! Sunshiners! The race for Mayor of Niles is on.
 It is between Bill Helm of the Niles theater and the Pastor.
 Bill thinks he's a cinch to win,
 and we believe we have the job
 all tied up with pink ribbons.
 Just a matter of Bill's ego and ours. We can't see how we can lose, though, for every non-progressive citizen in town is with us. Bill is out after the boosters, the go-getters, the "hurrah for Niles" gang. Just where he's goin' to find 'em is a mystery to us.

Earl Wood of the Mutual store is running for town treasurer. So far, Earl is unopposed. We have no fear of an opponent stepping in against him, because only an optimist of the first water would aspire for that job, and optimists seem to be scarce around these diggins.

Election day is next Tuesday.
 All good Sunshiners are urged to go to the polls and cast their vote for their favorite candidate. We wouldn't be such a poor sport as to solicit your vote through the Colyum, but at the same time we're not going to discourage
 you. You know our platform. We'll keep Niles just as she is if we're elected. We won't stand for a single improvement. Bill, on the other hand, is a progressive. He'll probably want to make a little city out of the village. Are you going to let him? Answer that question at the polls next Tuesday.

We received another letter from H. D. K. yesterday, in which he reminds us of the fact that "a fool may make friends, but it takes a wise man to keep them."

Believe it or not, but President Herbert Hoover was passed up cold the other night by a capacity audience at the Niles theater.
 Appearing on the screen with Ramsey McDonald, our country's leader put on his brightest smile and seemed real human, but he was just a couple of other fellows to the folks who were anxious for the feature picture to start.

TO ONE DISCOURAGED
 Our lives are not our own to lay aside
 When we are heavy freighted
 with despair,
 When sorrow in an overwhelming
 tide
 Comes bringing grief we think
 too great to bear;
 What'er our faith, 'tis then we should hold fast
 To all the hope and solace it can give;
 And clinging to it 'till the storm is past
 We'll prove our faith a rock by which to live.
 Some lives are like a candlestick
 of gold,
 Beaten and fashioned inwrought,
 a light to hold
 Whose beauty is a call to all:
 Aspire!
 Life's victory is not in giving up,
 But in the bravely drinking of its cup.

 In the presence of relatives and a few close friends, Miss Ilene Mendoza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Mendoza of Sunol, and Mr. Frank Garcia of Turlock were wedded Sunday in the church at Mission San Jose. The ceremony was performed by Father Leal of o'clock in the afternoon.

 The Misses Alberta and Hazel
 Mendoza, sisters of the bride, and Dorothy Prouse of San Jose acted as bride's maids. Attendants for the groom were Messrs. Manuel Hendricks of Alvarado and Edward Henry of San Jose.
 Following the ceremony the bride's parents received at their home in Sunol.

Winter Driving Hints
 By replacing the automobile high tension wires at the beginning of the winter season, the ignition system is fortified against current leakage from cracked or broken ignition wire insulation, advises "Service Gus" of the Western Auto Supply Company. Sets of wires for individual makes of cars enable the car owner to install the necessary new wires himself at a low cost. Spark plugs that have seen 10,000 or more miles of service should likewise be replaced.

BOY SCOUTS IN NEW CLUBHOUSE

"Little by little" the Boy Scouts of Niles are getting their club house furnished.
 In a few days the Scouts will have a radio. Two stoves are already in the building. If citizens who have something of little use to themselves, but which might be a welcome addition to the clubhouse furnishings, will think of the Scouts before they do the junkman it won't be long before the building will be comfortable and attractive.

Blacow and Sullivan, Majestic dealers for the township, have donated a receiving set to the Scouts. The Scouts have agreed to install and maintain it.

 Centerville churches are cooperating in this service. A brief talk will be made by Dr. Mathes.

WATER DRAINAGE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR SINK HOLES

Draining of the water from beneath the farming land in the Newark district by the pumping plant of the Eastbay Municipal Utilities at Alvarado is said to be responsible for the appearance of a number of "sink holes" on ranches in this area.

The holes have appeared on a number of ranches and in some instances the surface of the ground has sunk to a depth of ten feet.

SKY-LINE PARTY

A delightful party was held last Saturday night at the sky-line ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Al Vieux in Morrison canyon. The Harmony Makers of Niles were on hand with their harmonicas and other musical instruments and songs, instrumental solos and dancing passed the hours away all too quickly. A delicious supper was served by Mrs. Vieux at midnight. Among those present were Miss Geraldine Cowell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Geib, James and George Geib, Earl Wood, George King, C. R. Courter, Miss Mary Fields and Mrs. J. Frazier, mother of Mrs. Vieux and Mrs. Geib.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clement, of Berkeley, were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson last week-end. Clement is traffic manager in the San Francisco office of Schuckl & Company.

NATURAL GAS LINES NEARER TO PLEASANTON

Servicing That Community Will Be Possible By March

Natural gas lines are reaching nearer and nearer to Pleasanton each day, and by March 15, 1930, it is expected that the gas mains will be installed and ready to furnish gas to that district.

All that remains to assure Pleasanton of having this fuel by next spring is the procuring of a franchise for that purpose by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, whose pipe lines are referred to in the above paragraph. The Pacific Gas and Electric Company will attempt to purchase that franchise at the next regular meeting of the Pleasanton council, Monday, evening, December 2.

There undoubtedly will be competitive bidding for the franchise between the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Consumers' Gas Company when council offers it for sale.

The gas line which very probably will furnish Pleasanton with this natural fuel will come down through the San Joaquin valley. This particular line will be some 159 miles in length, according to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, and will pass just east of Livermore.

At this point near Livermore a regulation pressure plant will be installed and a branch main laid via Mission San Jose to Milpitas.

The following announcement was made by A. F. Hockenbeamer, president of the company, in connection with the work being done in laying these many miles of additional pipe lines.

"The company is not planning merely to serve natural gas to large centers of population and industry, but is preparing to bring the benefits of cheaper fuel to substantially the entire territory served by it.

"More than 100 communities will be reached by the company's natural gas mains within the next twelve months.

"The first deliveries of the pipe have been made along the right-of-way, practically all rights-of-way have been secured and installation is proceeding rapidly, giving much winter employment to local labor."

ALAMEDA COUNTY HEAVY PRODUCER OF CAULIFLOWER

Alameda county will produce 100,000 crates of cauliflower this season, according to an estimate given out this week by Carl M. Schmitter, truck crop specialist. "The lowly vegetable will be king for a day," Schmitter states, "and will bring truck growers handsome profits."

California will slack off 100 acres to 900 in its spring celery crop, but intentions to plant in the Delta district, the sole fall commercial producer, indicates that crops will be taken from 7,300 acres a year hence as compared with 7000 acres this fall.

Departed Member Mourned By Niles Chamber Of Commerce

The regular meeting of the Niles chamber of commerce was swerved from its breezy, busy trend for several minutes on Tuesday at noon when a silent tribute was extended J. A. Crawford, a veteran member, who passed away suddenly early Monday morning.

President Harvey Braun eulogized the departed member, telling of his sterling qualities as a man, of his code of honor in business, and his ever-ready willingness to aid a worthy cause.

The method of urging citizens of raise $200 for the Boy Scout fund reported $150.75 had been raised after several weeks of extensive canvassing, and that that amount would be turned in. Business houses and individuals in Niles contributed $108.25, and industries contributed $42.50, according to the committee's report.

The committee delegated to Niles to do their Christmas shopping with local merchants will be through the showing of three decorated slides on the screen of the Niles theater at each performance for two weeks prior to Christmas day. This plan was adopted after J. E. Townsend, secretary, reported the cost of the slides would be less than the purchase price of a certain motion picture. The text of the slides will be a short sermon on patronizing home-town merchants.

A report was made on the open-air meeting held Monday at the east portal of the Western Pacific tunnel in Niles canyon for the purpose of determining the time for re-opening the canyon highway. The announcement that the road is expected to be open on or about December 14 made a good impression on the commerce chamber members.

Immediate steps are to be taken toward lighting and decorating the living Christmas tree on Main street. Certain members suggested more lights on the tree than there were last year, and the suggestion was approved by the membership.

An invitation to attend the Thursday meeting of the Centerville chamber of commerce was read and accepted.

Editorial Comment

NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

wealth laughed at protests of the people. Under his tenure of office the notorious bunco man, "Big Hutch," was turned loose under very shady circumstances. Secrecy shrouded the incident until a reporter ran across the skunk that filched the widow and the orphan of life-savings, living a sleek and fat life in New York. When the story was printed, the governor assumed a righteous indignation and played to the grand stand in a futile effort to have "Big Hutch" brought back to California and thrown into prison where he belonged. Well, they didn't bring the dirty robber back, and few believed they had any intention of doing so. That incident started a noxious smell issuing from the parol board's headquarters and the stink has been growing more offensive to the nostrils of decent citizens ever since.

Informed political observers know that Richardson is politically as dead as a doornail, but the pseudo-newspaper man runs around the state holding "conferences" like he thought he was very much alive. Strangely, he has never realized that Mister Harry Chandler put him in office for a purpose, and as that purpose, which was to kill the Swing-Johnson bill, failed, the matter is closed and he no longer is of interest to the publisher of that personal organ and champion of everything vicious in business and politics—the Los Angeles Times!

The ex-governor was against the Boulder Canyon dam bill, and that was his big job in Sacramento. That he did his level best for his boss, Chandler, no one will dispute. But now Harry, in gratitude that he is, has turned his recent pack-horse out of the corral and told him to shift for himself, while currying down another steed to enter the primaries next summer.

Next week we may tell our readers about this new racer; next week the Register hopes to have space to give to the world some inside facts about the campaign that was begun almost two years ago and continued since to throw about this certain candidate the glamor of spectacular honesty hoping that it would so enhance his reputation throughout this state that the announcement of his candidacy for governor would be a signal for all good men and women to rally to his standard. That announcement has not yet been made, but it is forthcoming and even before next week it may be broadcasted throughout the length and breadth of this great domain.

This man may, after all, prove to be the strongest candidate, though in many ways his hands will be tied never to be lifted in defense of the common herd, when to do so would conflict with the selfish purposes of a powerful reactionary clique with headquarters south of the Tehachapi.
